Senior Class Officers

The Senior class officers were very well organized.

They planned this year's fundraisers, all senior activities, and the Senior Prom.

They always had a lot of work to do and complete every task with help from the entire class.

Senior Fundraisers

All of the senior class activities that took place this year, from homecoming float building to the senior prom, took place because of many fund raising projects, this year and the previous three.

The class started early by holding a car wash in August a few weeks prior to the opening of school.

Once the school year began, a popular fundraiser was the sale of senior class t-shirts, sweatshirts, and boxer shorts.

As a final fundraiser, a fashion show was held.

Because of all the money raising activities that went before, the final year was a success.

Wind Of Change

I follow the Moskua down to Gorky Park
Listening to the wind of change.

An August summer night, soldiers passing by,
Listening to the wind of change.

The world is closing in.
Did you ever think that we could be so close,
Like brothers?
The future is in the air.
Can feel it everywhere.
I'm blowing with the wind of change.

Take me to the magic of the moment on a glory night,
Where the children of tomorrow dream away,
In the wind of change.

Walking down the street,
Distant memories are buried in the past forever.
I follow the Moskua down to Gorkey Park.

Take me to the magic on a glory night
Where the children of tomorrow share
Their dreams, for you and me.

Take me to the magic of the moment on a glory night,
Where the children of tomorrow dream away,
In the wind of change.

The wind of change blows straight
Into the face of time,
Like a storm wind that will ring
The freedom bell for peace of mind.

Let your balalaika sing.
Take me to the magic of the moment on a glory night,
Where the children of tomorrow share
Their dreams, with you and me.

Take me to the magic of the moment on a
Glory night,
Where the children of tomorrow dream away,
In the wind of change.

"Taking The Lead"

Class officers (LtoR): Kellie Houck, Kara Dickinson, Katie Credo, and Charlie Dahlke.

The Freshman float was a big hit in the Homecoming Parade. It featured the "muppet babies" derived from Sesame Street.

The float garnered first place, a rare achievement for a freshmen class.

The Freshmen started out as winners when their float earned first place in the homecoming competition.

"Jumping In"

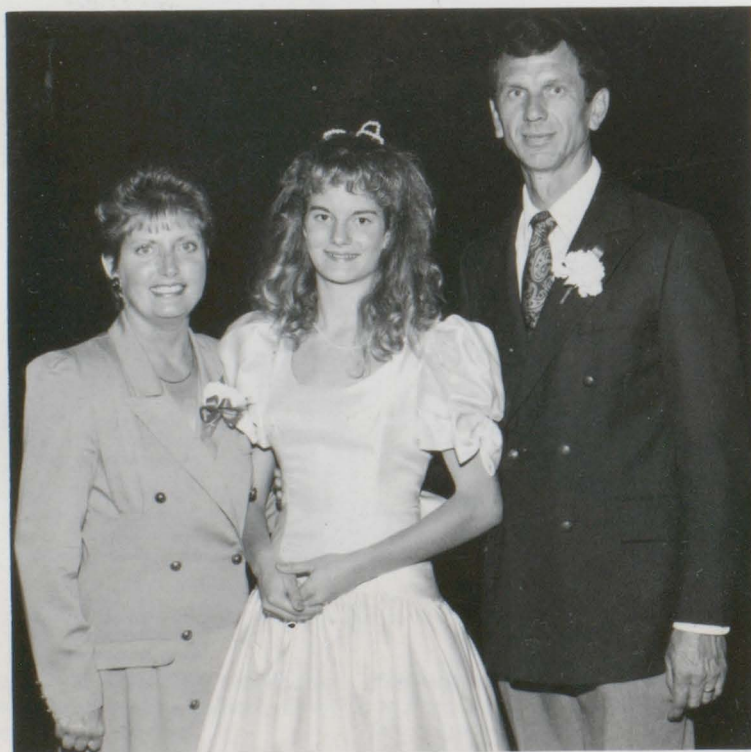

The freshmen class started out on a very positive note early in their high school career.

It seemed that the year just began and the freshmen, annual last place finishers in the homecoming float building contest, were declared the overall first place finishers by the judges.

President Kellie Houck said, "At first we were a bit confused, but we got excited, and then organized."

Frosh Princess

The 1991 Freshman Homecoming Princess was Kellie Houck.

She was very excited to be chosen on this year's court, and said, "Homecoming was a great experience that I will never forget!"

Of course, she was honored and shocked that her class chose her to represent them.

Kellie's favorite part of homecoming was getting to know the other class representatives on the court better.

Kellie is also the elected class president.

Kellie was escorted at the halftime festivities by her parents Mr. and Mrs. David and Lynn Houck.

Princess, Kellie Houck, is escorted by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. David and Lynn Houck.

Miss Butler Advisor

She will guide the class throughout four years of fun, raising, dances, special projects, proms, and graduation activities.

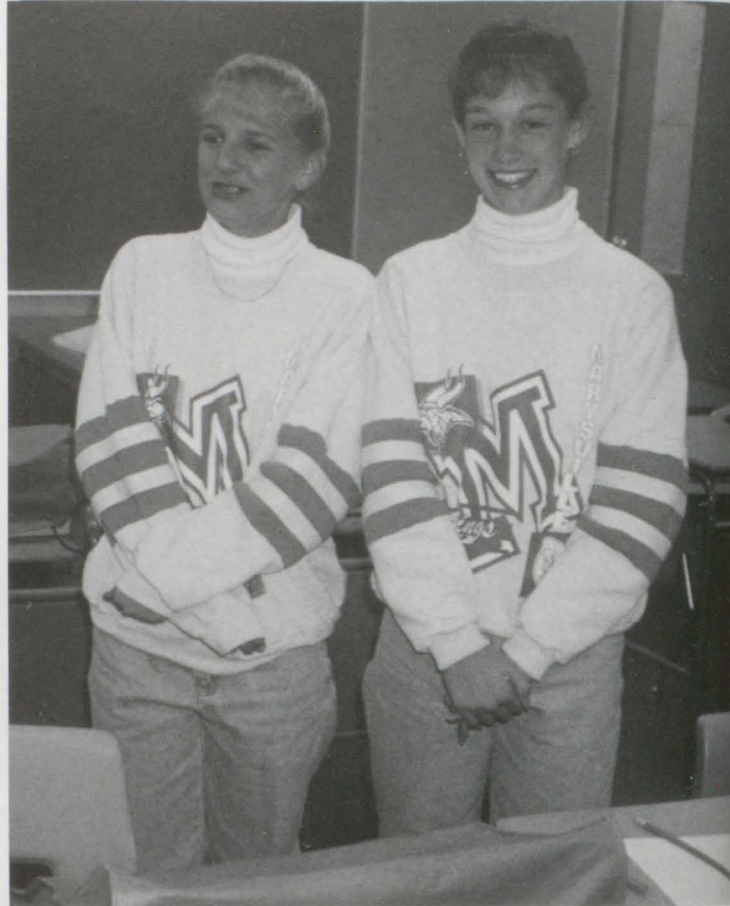

She guided the class to float building award.

Cathy MacKay
Editor

Senior Cathy MacKay was the VIKING yearbook editor for 1991-1992.

Cathy was directly responsible for the senior play, senior color pages, tech center, homecoming court, and directing the completion of all pages.

Cathy commented, "Being a part of the yearbook has been a lot of fun! It was a great learning experience full of responsibilities. A yearbook is something you can keep forever and your memories will always be with you."

Kelly Crocker

Kelly Crocker, a junior, was the yearbook's sports editor.

This was her third year working on the yearbook.

Kelly's assignments were centered around the entire sports section.

Kelly said, "Yearbook can be hard at times, but it is a lot of fun."

Sera Young

Sophomore Sera Young was the underclassmen and staff editor.

This was her second year in yearbook. Her creativity and writing skills are a real asset.

"As long as you keep up your end of the responsibility it (yearbook) can be a lot of fun," Sera said.

Karla Witukiewicz

Karla Witukiewicz, a junior, was the Student Life editor. She has been with the yearbook for two years.

Karla commented on the yearbook class by saying, "Yearbook class is very time consuming, but the rewards are well worth it. I am glad I can help and be a part of the class."

Jennifer Kustowski

Jennifer Kustowski, three year senior veteran, was the business manager.

Jennifer kept track of the yearbook sales, ad accounts, and kept all financial and supply records.

She stated, "It's neat to see your work get printed into a book that people keep for their memories."

Yearbook

"Publishing the year from start to finish."

Our Yearbook staff and editors have been hard at work since the first day of school. If we weren't taking pictures or doing layouts we were writing stories and typing to meet deadlines.

Many people believe that yearbook class is very easy. Well it's not all fun and games helping plan our school's yearbook is hard work which many people do not realize.

To start out we are very busy taking and collecting pictures. Next we have to plan a layout sheet to see where each picture goes. Then we reproduce our layout sheet onto a final layout sheet to be sent in to North Carolina.

This all has to be done within a matter of a few weeks.

Becky Medcraft types a yearbook page. Or is she really stealing Mrs. Seddon's typewriter?

Academic Awards

Outstanding Academic Achievers

The academic awards program is designed to reward students who have demonstrated outstanding academic achievements during the year. The counseling department establishes who has and who has not met the requirements for the award. To be eligible, students must maintain a 3.5 grade point average in each of his or her classes, be enrolled in either regular or honor classes, enrolled in eight academic classes each as freshman and sophomore students, and in six academic classes as juniors and seniors. The academic classes are English, social studies, mathematics, science, and foreign language.

The academic awards differ each year. At the end of the first year of eligibility, the student will receive a certificate. After the second year, a letter bearing the designation SCHOLAR is awarded. A medal, the Lamp Of Learning, is presented after the third year. Upon graduation, a special diploma notation, a sticker, is attached to the student's diploma.

Sports: The Magic & Tragic

Magic. A sad Magic. A wonderful Magic. Barry's magic. All forms of MAGIC covered the year.

The overwhelming recollection will be of Magic Johnson's announcement that he was retiring from the Los Angeles Lakers and professional basketball after testing positive for the virus that causes AIDS. The words still echo, "Because of the virus..."

Desmond Howard, the other Magic, won the Heisman Trophy while producing consistently wonderful performances for Rose Bowl-bound and Big Ten champion Michigan.

But don't believe that the only magic was of the capitalized version. Don't believe that the only magic was a Magic's magic. There was also Barry Sanders' magic. He made the Lions and big deal and led them into the NFL playoffs.

But magic was also found in other places:

Ernie Harwell's voice was heard for 32 seasons as the Tiger's voice. The year was his last.

Paralyzed Detroit Lion Mike Utley's "thumbs up" sign to his teammates created a magic that became the spirit of the team.

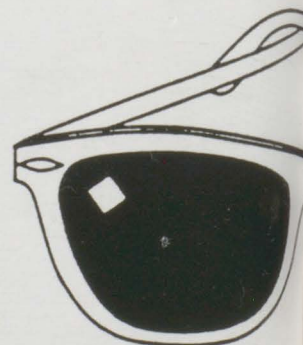

Cecil Fielder's slugging has become part of Detroit Tiger lore.

The magic disappeared for the Detroit Pistons as they lost to the Chicago Bulls after two years as the NBA champions.

A black and white photograph of a road stretching into the distance under a cloudy sky. The road is dark and appears to be a two-lane highway, with a white dashed line visible in the center. The horizon is low, showing silhouettes of trees and possibly a body of water. The sky is filled with soft, diffused clouds, creating a hazy, atmospheric effect.

FAR AWAY

There in the sunshine
are my highest aspirations.
I may not reach them,
but I can look up
and see their beauty,
believe in them,
and try to follow
where they lead.

Louisa May Alcott
